

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal

The appeal process provides an opportunity to seek reinstatement of financial aid funds based on submitting proof of extenuating circumstances that prevented the student from meeting satisfactory academic progress during the previous enrollment period(s). Your submitted appeal will be reviewed by a financial aid administrator and a decision will be made regarding your circumstances. The review process can take up to 4 - 6 weeks or longer to complete.

Section A: Student Information

Name: _____ Student ID#: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____

Section B: Reasons for Appeal

Directions: Check your reason(s) for appealing and the category that contributed to your inability to maintain SAP during the semester(s) that led you to your financial aid suspension status below:

Reason(s) for Suspension (Check all that apply)

- ☐ Grade Point Average (GPA) – a cumulative GPA of 2.0 was not maintained over at least 4 semesters
- ☐ Completion Rate – two consecutive semesters were not completed according to the minimum standard
- ☐ Timeframe – (excessive hours) student exceeded the maximum time frame of 150% of the program

Mitigating Circumstance

- ☐ Serious illness, accident or injury, to student or immediate family member (parent, spouse, sibling, or child). Attach supporting documentation; physician's statement, police report or other documentation from a third party professional; hospital billing statement, etc.
- ☐ Death of an immediate family member (parent, spouse, sibling, child). Include the name of the deceased and relationship to you. Submit a copy of the obituary and/or death certificate.
- ☐ Divorce experienced by you or your parent. Type a detailed statement of the circumstances. Attach an attorney's letter on law firm's letterhead or copy of divorce decree.
- ☐ Significant trauma in student's life that impaired the student's emotional and/or physical health. Include dates and what you have done to overcome your condition. Attach supporting documentation from a third party; physician, social worker, counselor, police, attorney, etc.
- ☐ Change of degree plan/major. Students submitting appeals for this circumstance may only submit up to two appeals while enrolled and MUST have completed the requirements of the previous appeal.
- ☐ Other significant and unexpected documented circumstances beyond the control of the student such as job loss, need for retraining, etc.

Section C: Appeal Requirements

- Attach a TYPED detailed statement of the circumstances checked off on the previous page. Your statement must include a TIMELINE if you are attaching documentation to show how the event prevented you from maintaining satisfactory academic progress and what has changed in your situation that would allow you to demonstrate SAP at the next evaluation of grades. PLEASE SIGN YOUR STATEMENT.
- Attach an Updated Academic Evaluation plan for the major in which you are appealing for. Academic Evaluation MUST be completed by your Academic Advisor with a current date and signature. Prior to submitting your appeal, you are required to confirm the Registrar's Office has the correct/updated academic program and catalog year on file and it matches the Academic Evaluation attached.
- All students that are appealing for majors with programs that require acceptance MUST attach a copy of their acceptance letter into said program.
- All students who submit an appeal are required to read the Del Mar College Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy located on our homepage: www.delmar.edu/becoming-a-viking/afford/
- You are required to check your preferred student email on file up to 4-6 weeks after submitting your appeal.

* Beginning Fall 2026, the following semester deadlines to submit an appeal will be implemented. ****

- ❖ Fall: October 1
- ❖ Spring: March 1
- ❖ Summer: July 1

Certification and Signature

I have read the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy and agree with all of the appeal requirements above. I understand that incomplete appeals will be denied, the processing time can take up to 4 – 6 business weeks or longer, and that registration costs will be covered by myself while this appeal is being reviewed. I understand that the financial aid administrator's decision is FINAL and cannot be overturned.
